HANNAH L. BARNUM DUNHAM, Lucy Ariail family line

From a private letter it has been learned that the wife of Phineas S. Dunham died Thursday night last of meningitis of the brain, at her home in McHenry, N. D., after two weeks illness.

The funeral was held on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Dunham formerly lived in Faribault, Mrs. D. having been a daughter of E. Barnum, who was in the insurance business in Faribault for a number of years.

PHINEAS LEONARD DUNHAM, Lucy Ariail's grandson who died in the Civil War.

D I E D

In Hospital at Gettysburg, Penn, on Fri., 17th ult, of wounds received in battle July 2, 1862, Corporal PHINEAS L. DUNHAM, aged 22 years and 7 months.

Corporal Dunham was one of the noblest of the noble band of young men who enlisted in Company G of the First Minnesota Regiment at the first call of the President for volunteers.

With him, enlisting was not a matter of preference, but of duty. With an aged mother dependent upon him, to a great extent, for care and support in her old age, the peace and quiet of private life would have been his choice; but to the calls of his country he could not turn a deaf ear.

No man has ever entered the Army of the Potomac from purer motives of patriotism than our brave young friend Dunham --- Many a noble heart has been stilled in death by Southern assassins; many a noble sacrifice during the past two years has bled upon the altar of Freedom and the Union; but no nobler offering or purer sacrifice has been offered than was offered by Corporal Dunham, when he gave up his young life and fell on the bloody field of Gettysburg, a martyr in a glorious cause.

His dying message to his beloved parent and friends was worthy the Christian patriot and hero.

Corporal Dunham has been in all the battles in which the Minnesota First has participated, and has always been spoken of in the highest terms by all his superior officers, and his name and memory will ever be fondly cherished by all loyal citizens who had the pleasure of knowing him at home, and his brave companions in arms.

The loyal will everywhere sympathize with the bereaved friends.

BRUCE JENNINGS WALKER, Lucy Ariail family line

Bruce J. Walker, well-known and respected Meade County businessman and community leader, passed away in Sturgis, SD, at home on Monday, June 10, 2003, surrounded by his loving family.

Visitation will be at the Kinkade Funeral chapel on Thursday from 8 a.m. until 9 p.m. on Friday one hour prior to the services at the church.

Funeral services will be held at the First Presbyterian Church in Sturgis at 2 p.m. on Friday, Jun 20, 2003, with Rev. Howard Smith officiating. Burial will follow at the Bear Butte Cemetery. Masonic Graveside rites will be conducted by the Olive Branch #47 AF & AM.

Bruce Jennings Walker, 73, was born January 13, 1930, in Rapid City, SD, to Harold J. and Mary (Hughes) Walker. He graduated from Sturgis High School in 1947, where he played center on the Black Hills Conference Championship football team. After graduating from Colorado State University with a degree in Animal Husbandry in 1951, Bruce joined his father in the banking business at the Bear Butte Valley Bank in Sturgis.

He married his high school sweetheart, Carol Shaw of White Owl, on January 20, 1952. That year Bruce enlisted in the military and was stationed for two years in Panama as a Staff Sergeant in the United States Army during the Korean conflict.

Over his distinguished forty-year career in the banking industry, he held virtually every position in affiliation with the Bear Butte Valley Bank and several banking institutions, which is now the First Western Bank in Sturgis. He served as bank president for ten years and retired in 1992. In Bruce's eyes, the most important collateral for a loan was a person's strong work ethic, integrity, and determination to succeed. He is credited with giving so many their first start in business and securing the livelihoods of a number of ranchers throughout Meade County. Bruce found his greatest release and pleasure operating his ranch north of Union Center, SD. His love of ranching was nurtured by the summers he spent on his grandfather William Hughes' ranch near Interior, SD.

Bruce was an ardent believer in serving and giving back to the community. He gave unselfishly his time and boundless energy to numerous civic and church activities that included: Member of the Meade County School Board for fifteen years and President seven years; City of Sturgis Municipal Utility Board for twenty-four years; Sturgis Senior Citizens Advisory Board; Board of Directors of the Sturgis Rally and Races; and Treasurer of the Jack-pine Gypsies racing organization for twenty-six years. In 1999, he was recognized by the Sturgis Chamber of Commerce for his community and volunteer service as recipient of the Key City Award. Bruce was a member and Elder of the First Presbyterian Church in Sturgis. As financial secretary for twenty-seven years, he was instrumental in the building of the church that meant so much to him.

Voters of Meade County first elected him in 1984 to the South Dakota State Senate, where he represented District 26 for three two-year terms and served on the Appropriations Committee. He was a life-long active Republican.

Bruce was a member and past master of the Olive Branch #47 AF & AM Masonic Lodge for over fifty years; the Cowboy unit of the Naja Shrine; South Dakota Stock-growers; Buckaroos; Golden Kiwania; and the American Legion. He loved helping others, whether it be shoveling a walk, delivering Meals on Wheels, providing a taxi service for those who could no longer drive, assisting his elderly friends in financial matters, or sharing the fruits of his bountiful garden.

Bruce is survived by his loving wife of 51 years, Carol Walker, Sturgis; three daughters and their husbands, Susan and Hal Hokenstad, Henderson, NV, Patricia and Rick Ramier, Belgrade, MT, and Janeen and Mark Norstegaard, Sturgis; his twin sister, Beth walker, Spearfish; his brother, Hermon Walker, Laughlin, NV; grandchildren, Bridger and Markee Norstegaard, Sturgis, Joe and Jordan Ramier, Belgrade, and Harold Hokenstad, Phoenix, Az; his aunt, Marjoie Henriks, Sturgis; and twelve special nieces and nephews.

His mother and father and an infant son, B.J., preceded him in death.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be made to the First Presbyterian Church of Sturgis, Hospice of the Northern Hills, Spearfish, or the Naja Shrine Crippled Children Transportation Fund, PO Box 7893, Rapid City, SD 57701.

ANNA AUGUSTA CHATFIELD WOODS, *Lucy Ariail family line

Funeral, Mrs. P. C. Woods Attended at Presbyterian Church

The funeral of Mrs. Preston C. Woods, was held yesterday afternoon from the Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. H. McClenahan.

Anna Augusta Chatfield was born March 18, 1859, and was fifty nine years, eleven months and fourteen days old at the time of her death, which occurred Sunday, February 2, 1913.

On September 4, 1876, at Iowa City, Ia., at the age of seventeen, she married Preston C. Woods, who survives her. They lived near West Liberty, Ia., for seven years, and then moved to Boone County, Neb., remaining there for two years. From Boone County they went to Dawes County, Neb., and then came to South Dakota, settling for a time on White river. Sixteen years ago they came to Rapid City and have lived here ever since.

Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Woods, seven of whom are living, one, Ruth, dying when she was eight months old. The children are Earle B. Woods, of Republic, Wash.; Mrs. W. S. Hughes, of Otis, S.D.; Mrs. T. H. Ballew, Rapid City; William S. Woods, Sundance, Wyo.; Lester V. Woods, Scenic, S.D.; Doris Woods, Rapid City.

There are several grandchildren, and there are two nieces, the Misses Chatfield, to whom she has been the same as a mother for years.

Mrs. Woods has been in poor health for several years, which with a large family and a great deal to bother her, has made life anything but an easy one for her. She was a kindhearted, Christian woman, who did the best she could wherever placed. How true it is that we know not what is before us, or who will be called next, for the last time the writer saw Mrs. Woods was in the fall when she brought in some grapes she had picked as a little present for "ve editor." The jelly made from those grapes will be double prized now.

The children were all present at the funeral except Earle, who lives so far away. He would have come, however, but their baby is quite ill, and his wife, known when she lived here as Oney Hardy, was in the hospital for a time not long ago, so his duty seemed to be at home, especially as he could not see his mother alive.

MRS. P. D. WOODS DEAD

Sunday afternoon, February 2, 1913, occurred the death of Mrs. P. C. Woods, after a somewhat lingering illness. Mrs. Woods had been brought to the hospital for an operation, but it was found that she was beyond help. Particulars as to her life were not obtainable yesterday, but will be given later. The date for her funeral has not been set as the family is waiting to hear from her son, Earle B. Woods, who lives at Republic, Wash. A daughter, Mrs. W. S. Hughes, Lives at Otis, this state.

EDWARD BEECHER CHATFIELD, SR., *Lucy Ariail family line

Edward B. Chatfield was born on the old family homestead six miles west of Dubuque, Iowa, in 1866, and was forty years and nineteen days old at the time of his death which occurred Monday, February 12, 1906. He was married to Miss Dora Bushere in 1890.

About four years ago, while living in Topeka, Kansas, Mrs. Chatfield died, leaving four children, the youngest child having died six months before.

Mr. Chatfield has been in poor health for several years, and with his motherless children he has had a hard time, in which the little ones have bravely borne their part.

A year ago last December a sister, Mrs. C. P. Woods, who lives five miles west of Rapid City, received word from them that they were very much in need, and wanted to come here as they hoped his health would be improved by coming to a higher and dryer climate.

Mrs. Woods was very anxious to assist, but was not in a position to do a great deal, but by February the matter was arranged, and the younger children came through from Topeka on the cars alone.

The father and oldest boy followed by team. Mr. Chatfield owning a team and wagon. They arrived here in June.

The longed for change did not help the sick man, for consumption had too strong a hold upon him. He has suffered all summer, gradually growing worse until the end came as stated. Mr. and Mrs. Woods and the neighbors did all they could for him and the children, but it was a sad case the best that could be made of it.

Deceased leaves the four children, Edward, aged 15, Nellie, aged 13, Lillian, aged 10, and Gladys, aged eight.

He also leaves two brothers in Dubuque, and three sisters whose whereabouts are unknown. The fourth sister is Mrs. Woods of this city.

The funeral service will be held in Congregational Church this afternoon at two o'clock conducted by Rev. S. G. Butcher.

DIED

West of Rapid City, Monday, February 12, 1906, Edward B. Chatfield, of consumption.

Particulars of the life of the deceased are not at hand, but will be given tomorrow.

Deceased is a brother of Mrs. C. P. Woods, and has been ill for a long time. He came here from Kansas City last summer, and leaves four young children in poor circumstances. It is a sad case and one that is worthy of sympathy.

The funeral will be held Wednesday. If any who read these lines this morning have a few flowers it will be very much appreciated if they will send them to this office this forenoon, or immediately after dinner. If several will send even a few blossoms or leaves, all together will make a showing and please the children who have expressed a desire for some flowers for their father's funeral.

Faribault Republican, 19/Aug/1891

Died at his residence in this city on Sunday morning last, Aug, 16, after a painful illness of several months, ending in pneumonia. Mr. Dunham was widely known in the county, having been an early settler, and always taken an active part in public affairs.

He was a native of Plainville, Conn., and came to Rice County about the year 1856, settling upon a farm northeast of Roberds Lake, in the town of Wells. During the war he removed to Faribault. In 1872 he was elected an alderman in the first city council in Faribault, which office he held two years. In 1873 he was elected a Representative in the Legislature, and subsequently filled subordinate positions in that body.

In 1876 he was appointed Chief of Police by Mayor Nutting, which position he filled for several years very acceptably. He possessed natural ability as a detective, and was very successful in ferreting out criminals. As an officer he was active, vigilant and untiring in the discharge of his duties.

He also filled the position of Deputy Sheriff several terms, his last official position was Deputy Oil Inspector, which he held for two years ending last spring. Mr. Dunham was an active politician, strongly attached to the principles of the Republican Party, and whether working for his party, or serving the public in an official capacity.

He was indefatigable in the discharge of every obligation of duty. He was a useful citizen and enjoyed the esteem of a very large circle of friends.

He married after coming to Minnesota Miss Augusta Recor, who survives him. He leaves three sons, viz: Rufus C., Charles H., and Phineas Dunham, and one daughter, Eva, who is married to C. W. Newell, and resides in Shakopee.

Deceased also leaves as aged mother, one brother, Henry Dunham, and a sister Mrs. George S. Woodruff.

He was foreman of Engine Co. No. 1, at the time it was disbanded. The flag of the engine house was displayed at half-mast in memory of the deceased and delegates from the several companies attended the funeral and acted as a guard of honor in escorting the remains to the cemetery.

The funeral ceremonies, which were numerously attended, took place at the residence of the deceased yesterday at 10 a.m., Rev. E. Gale, of the Congregation Church, officiating.

The pallbearers were O.S. Blake, B. F. Straub, J. B. Gwathmey, Isaac Anderson, J. J. Van Saun, and S. P. Wall.

In 1862 he removed to Faribault where he resided to the time of his death, being prominent in political affairs. In the spring of 1872 he was elected an Alderman and served on term.

In 1873 he was elected a member of the Legislature, served one term and subsequently served on term as postmaster of the house.

In 1876 he was appointed Chief of Police by Mayor Nutting and subsequently appointed to the same position by Mayors Parshall and Wood.

He was an excellent officer and developed good ability as a detective. He has also filled the position of Deputy Sheriff and was State Oil Inspector for two years. His term of office expiring last spring.

In all positions he was a faithful officer, and there are few men who have more friends.

He is survived by his wife and four children, Rufus C., Charles H., Phineas, and Mrs. C. W. Newell, of Shakopee, also by his mother, one brother, Henry Dunham and one sister, Mrs. George S. Woodruff, of this city.

THE ELECTION YESTERDAY.

The Republicans Elect Three Aldermen, Treasurer and Assessor.

The Democrats Capture the Mayor and One Alderman.

The Saloon Licenses Must Go up This Year.

The election yesterday brought out a pretty full vote, notwithstanding it was a nasty, drizzling day. There was a warm contest on the mayor in which party lines were nearly obliterated, and the old issue of North and South was revived, to the material advantage of the Democratic candidate.

The Republicans having set an example of supporting the Democratic candidate for mayor last year, expected a like consideration from their opponents in this election, but were disappointed.

Both candidates were excellent men, however, and if the mayor-elect will go for high license and enforce the laws against Sunday liquor selling and gambling, and requiring all persons to clean up their premises, the people will rise up and call him blessed.

The contest on aldermen was very warm, especially in the first and fourth wards, where the Republican candidates achieved splendid victories.

The new board, according to present indications, will show a majority in favor of raising saloon licenses to $250.

The figures of the vote are as follows:

	1 ST Ward	2d	3d	4 th	Total	Maj.

EDNA JANE HURT, Climelia Abigail Ariail family line

Jane Hurt Yarn, Environmentalist

Jane Hurt Yarn was one of former President Jimmy Carter's closest advisers.

By Patti Puckett

Staff Writer

For more than 25 years, Jane Hurt Yarn fought to preserve what was wild.

She raised $28,000 to purchase tiny Egg Island on the Georgia coast in 1969.

"Housewife Saves an Island," a newspaper headline read.

After that, Mrs. Yarn helped the Nature Conservancy of Georgia buy three more islands; Wolf, Ossabaw and Wassaw.

From there, she became a nationally known environmentalist, serving as one of former President Jimmy Carter's closest advisers in Georgia and the White House.

"Without her insight and sensitivity, I could never have accomplished what I did environmentally," Mr. Carter said in June. "Her calm, patient leadership long since qualified Jane Yarn as a hero of mine."

Mrs. Yarn, a native of Scottsboro, Ala., died Wednesday of cancer at her Buckhead home. She was 71.

"No other single individual has done as much for conservation in Georgia as Jane Yarn," Gov. Zell Miller said this year.

Her dedication earned her dozens of awards, including the Conservationist of the Year Award from the Georgia Wildlife Federation, which she won in 1969 and again this year.

As an activist, Mrs. Yarn combined her knowledge of conservation issues with social graces that "left even the most rabid land developer saying 'yes, ma'am,'" said Joe Tanner, head of the State Commission on Privatization.

Mrs. Yarn and Mr. Tanner worked together when he was commissioner of natural resources in Georgia. She helped organize the department in 1972, Mr. Tanner said.

"Anything important in conservation and she was involved in it," he said. "She leaves a lasting legacy to Georgia and the nation."

Mrs. Yarn's interest in conservation was ignited by a 1967 hunting expedition with her family in Africa. "When we returned I was convinced we needed to save what we had," she said in a recent interview.

The funeral will be at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at All Saints Episcopal Church, with burial at 1 p.m. CDT Monday in Cedar Hill Cemetery in Scottsboro.

Surviving are her husband, Dr. Charles P. Yarn; three children, Amanda Yarn Hughes of Atlanta, Charles Andrew Yarn of Lilburn and Douglas Hurt Yarn of Watkinsville; and five grandchildren.

A Tribute to Climax’s Lt. Col. Doyce Ariail

By Jean Ann Ouzts, Climax Correspondent.

The City of Climax and surrounding community has lost another citizen who gave freely of his time and efforts to make life in the small town of Climax more enjoyable for all those he touched.

A role model for many youth who are now adults, and an icon for community service, retired Lt. Col. Doyce Ariail died on Sunday, April 5.

In 1979, Ariail decided along with his wife, Ann, and four sons to make the Climax community their home.

After settling in the small town, they made the united Methodist Church their church home, and thus began the many activities and community services he became known for in Climax and surrounding area.

He was a member of the Climax Community Club, serving in many capacities including the construction and preparation of the Swine Time Grounds, official driver of the Swine Time Princess, served as treasurer and held the office of vice-president. The club presented him with an official 25-year Swine Time walking cane in honor of his service.

In 1984, Gov. Joe Frank Harris presented Doyce with a proclamation for his organization and work with the youth recreation in Whigham and Grady County. Due to his work with the youth in Climax and Decatur County, and his community service, in 1996, he was nominated and chosen as the representative to carry the Olympic torch through the city.

When the City of Climax moved the train depot to the present site, and it became City Hall, Doyce was deeply involved in the moving and extensive renovation program that followed. He was also instrumental in constructing the Climax City ball park and coordinating the renovation and preservation of the Climax gym.

He served on the Cedar Grove Cemetery and ham and egg supper committees helping to benefit the trust fund to care for the grave sites of those interred at Cedar Grove.

He was the patriotic leader in the Flag Day celebration held in the city each year; with his health failing he participated in the last parade 2008 in his wheelchair and won.

Even in his last weeks and days he was involved in the Decatur County Veterans Memorial now being erected in Parker Park.

In 2002, to honor his service, the Climax City Council and then Mayor Carl Davis requested and received permission to name the new four-lane Highway 84 from the city limit's on the east end to the west the Doyce Ariail Highway. The late Mayor Davis presented a proclamation to Doyce to this affect.

Former City Councilman Charles Haddock recalls Doyce and what he did for the community.

"Doyce was a good Christian man: he was committed to the Climax United Methodist Church and the Climax Community. Before his illness, you could always find Doyce working on community projects, such as the restoration of the Climax Depot, the Climax School gym, Parker Park and other projects to improve our community." Haddock said.

"He was very active in many activities, and during his illness, Doyce never gave up. He was a fighter, and never wanted sympathy from anyone. He will be missed in the Climax Community; we extend our sympathy to the Ariail family and pray that the Lord will comfort them during the loss of a loved one."

Former City Clerk Alma Hart remembers a good friend.

“Doyce was an asset to the City of Climax and surrounding community. I worked with him on many projects as he was dedicated to the service of anyone and any project where needed. He was always dependable. He was a loyal soldier, a Godly man and a family man. Over the years I knew him I learned what true friendship was, and I will miss him.”

Verna Barnwell, former Climax City Councilwoman, recalls how Doyce was always ready to lend a helping hand.

“During my terms as city councilwoman, it was always an honor to know that Mr. Doyce Ariail was there lending a helping hand anyway he could to assist us in trying to make Climax a better town. All the work and projects he was involved in will never be forgotten.”

On Aug. 26, 2000, the Rev. Henry Clark and Barnwell, along with the help of all citizens, friends and neighbors around the area, sponsored a friends and family day in Climax held at the depot where Doyce was honored for his outstanding community service, Barnwell said.

On behalf of the City of Climax Mayor Liz Phillips said, “Doyce Ariail was a man who loved Climax and its people, and his church; he wanted to always do his best for both. He was the most active man, right to the end. He gave 100 percent plus. In all things he showed integrity, honor, courage, service, commitment, duty, and had a tremendous love for his God, his country and the flag. Many times he made sacrifices for the good of Climax. He was an awesome outstanding man. He never said no. The Ariail family is special to me, I feel like I have lost a family member.”

To this reporter, Doyce Ariail was always supportive and encouraging, making sure I was advised on all projects that he felt deserved media attention, most of the time that was everything having anything to do with Climax. He always expressed his appreciation for the Climax news column. I will miss him too. Condolences are sent to his family.
