MR. AND MRS. J.A. ARIAIL, celebrate golden anniversary Sunday

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ariail was celebrated at their home in Maysville with open house Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. They were married December 26, 1907.

Mrs. J. A. Ariail, the former Miss Lizzie Garrison, was graciously attired in a royal blue crepe dress enhanced by a yellow rose corsage. Yellow was predominantly used as the color theme throughout the home. There were two beautiful arrangements of flowers, one of yellow gladiolas and one of yellow mums. The mantel was decorated with candles and gold dried arrangements. The front door was decorated with a large gold bell in a spray.

The dining table was covered with a lace table cloth over gold taffeta. In the center the three tiered cake was beautifully decorated in white with yellow rose buds and green leaves, and a large 50 on the top. The cake was encircled with yellow roses and greenery.

A large punch bowl, encircled with yellow pompoms and greenery was placed at the other end of the table. Gold rimmed dishes of mints and nuts were placed at intervals along the table.

Individual cakes, iced in white with a yellow rose bud and green leaf were served with punch. White napkins with two bells and names, Lizzie and Joe, 1907-1957 stamped in gold were used.

The two sons, Mr. J.A. Ariail, Jr., and Mr. H. L. Ariail, greeted the friends and relatives at the door. The oldest daughter, Mrs. Thelma A. Ellison, kept the guest book. The daughters-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Ariail, Jr., and Mrs. H. L. Ariail, served punch and cake with the assistance of the granddaughters, Linda Fleming and Joanne Radford, serving mints, nuts, and napkins. The other three daughters, Mrs. Daniel Haines, Mrs. Marvin Fleming and Mrs. Joseph Radford, Jr., received the gifts and opened them for display.

Four Generations

An interesting highlight of the afternoon was that four generations of the Ariail family were present, Mr. and Mrs. Ariail, their daughter, Mrs. Thelma A. Ellison, grandson, Mr. William H. Ellison, Jr., and great grandson, Anthony William (Tony) Ellison.

(Note: A picture of Joseph Albert Ariail and Lizzie Garrison Ariail is held in the Ariail Archives.)

Lander Cureton left Greenville yesterday at 12:25 over the Southern for Greenville, Ala., where he will be married this afternoon at 5 o'clock to Miss. Corinne Till. Shortly after the ceremony Mr. Cureton and his bride will leave for Greenville, arriving here Thursday evening.

Miss Till is a very charming young lady. She has visited Greenville on a number of occasions and is well known here and in Simpsonville also, where she has relatives. Mr. Cureton is a son of A.H. Cureton, manager of the South Carolina Cotton Oil company. His many friends wish him much success in life.

MISS JEFFIE WELBORN, daughter of Elizabeth Climelia Ariail, Marriage at Easley

Mr. L.H. White and Miss Jeffie Welborn were married Wednesday at the home of the bride in Easley. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Wiggins.

Shortly after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. White came to Greenville, where they were the guests until yesterday afternoon of Mr. John Wyatt in West Greenville. They left yesterday for Birmingham, Ala., where they will make their future home.

Miss Welborn is a daughter of Mrs. A. J. Welborn of Easley and a very attractive young lady. Mr. White is in business in Birmingham, Ala.

MISS NORA CHAPMAN, step-granddaughter of Lucinda Parthenia Ariail, January 1911.

Married, on the 22d instant, at the residence of and by B.D. Mauldin, N.P. Miss Nora Chapman to Mr. Crayton Oliver, the bride is a granddaughter of Mr. Silas Curtis, the groom is a son of Mr. T.G. Oliver, both of this county. May they have a pleasant and prosperous journey through life.

MISS MABEL CLAIRE HENDERSON, granddaughter of Climelia Elizabeth Ariail
Henderson-Williams

Beauty and simplicity marked the consummation of the wedding vows of Miss Mabel Claire Henderson and Mr. Ford W. Williams at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Ross Henderson of Easley, on Wednesday evening, June 2, at 6:30 o'clock. Rev. D.W. Hiott of Pickens, former pastor of the bride, officiating.

The interior of this home was lovely, a soft and tasteful decoration of pink and white. The hall was effectively decorated with ferns and beautiful white roses. The large room on the right was used for the ceremony room, while a similar room on the left was the room in which the guests assembled. Both rooms were beautiful in their simple but lovely decoration of tiny pink roses, large ferns and palms. The mantels being banked in both rooms with the little pink roses and innumerable tall white candles were used, from which gleamed the soft glow of the lighted tapers.

Mrs. B.G. Collins of Birmingham, Ala., beautifully rendered the wedding March to which entered the only attendants, Miss Margaret Jameson and Mr. Bob Lathem; then came the bride and groom, who took their places under a lovely arch of pink roses. Mrs. Collins played "A Garland of Old Fashioned Roses" very softly during the impressive ceremony. In this beautifully arranged room and surrounded by relatives and a few close friends the two betrothed hearts were made one.

Immediately after the ceremony a delicious ice course bearing out the color scheme of pink and white was served by Misses Mae Pepper and Olive Henderson.

The bride was attired in a most becoming suit of blue with hat and gloves to match. Mrs. Williams, as Miss Henderson, is a young woman of unusual personal charm and attraction, and has a host of friends here who regret to give her up, but are glad that her home is no farther moved than Dacusville.

Mr. Williams is a prominent young merchant of Dacusville, and is held in the highest esteem by his numerous friends.

Many handsome and useful presents attested the popularity of this couple. They will be at home to their many friends in Dacusville after June 9.

MOLLIE ARIAIL, daughter of William Henry Harrison Ariail
A Marriage of Much Interest

A marriage of much interest in Easley took place at the home of the bride's mother when Miss Mollie, daughter of Mrs. W.H. Ariail became the bride of Dr. J.C. Walker. The ceremony was performed at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, January 30th last by a life long friend of the bride's family, Rev. D.W. Hiott. Only a few friends and near relatives were present to witness the ceremony. Mrs. Walker as Miss Ariail was very popular and numbered her friends by the score. Dr. Walker came to Easley several years ago from Williamston and has built up a large practice as a dentist, and is regarded as one of our very best citizens. They left immediately after the ceremony on their bridal trip to Atlanta, Nashville and other points. After their return to Easley they will live at Dr. Walker's beautiful suburban home. They have the love and best wishes of many friends.

Early School Groups.

Corner Grove School—1914.

Historical Trail

By John McCravy

It is a real joy to do this column each week and especially so when a fine friend gives us a good picture of a school group with all of the information.

We have known Ralph Hamlin of Route 1 for almost 60 years and in the picture made in 1914, we find several dozen of our fine citizens who attended the Corner Grove School. We also see others who died but still have relatives living in this area today.

On behalf of all pupils shown in this photograph, we wish to thank Mr. Ralph Hamlin for allowing us to bring you this picture with a list of their names.

Third row: Louie Tinsley, Dewey King, Lonnie Henderson, Edna King, Easter Tinsley, the teacher, Mary Lesley Whitlock, Clara Henderson, Mary Holliday, Ethel Shirley, Jess Hamlin, Harlow Hamlin, Dock Gillespie, Simon Holliday, Ansel Black.

Of the 42 pupils here I find only 23 still living. One who left the community and his whereabouts were never known.

One teacher who taught here is still living. Mrs. Mattie (Hinton) Fowler.
